MANAGED ATROCITIES

"Things just don't happen—they are planned that way" —Franklin D. Roosevelt

By Ralph W. McInnis

Thousands of Americans who have been taught to respect our freedom of the Press have expressed shock, dismay, and indignation when told bluntly by a government official that government has a right to manage the news.

But to astute political observers, the managed news story was not news at all. A growing disregard for truth has been glaringly obvious in the "liberal" presses, radios, and TV for many years; and it is high time that responsible Americans investigate the ownership of those communist-oriented peddlers of hate propaganda and falsehood. Those of us who already know who communism is as well as what it is will be immensely relieved when others discover the pattern of names that will emerge from an investigation into the ownership of our "liberal" news media.

Managed news was not a new phenomenon in American politics and the communication media even during the first world war. Those who are old enough to remember will recall that during that frightful fratricide of the white race, Americans were aroused to a white heat of anti-Germanism when told that the mean old Germans were cutting off the arms of defenseless, innocent little Belgian boys—so the kids could never grow up to carry a gun against Germany. At the same time, the reds were busy agitating the Germans against the US, convincing them that Americans are some sort of brainless beasts.

The objective of red agitation on both sides was annihilation of the white race. At the same time, the reds boast that the stupid capitalists, if properly approached, will be happy to assist in their own destruction. Not only has our news been managed by these ruthless vermin, but our very lives and our fortunes have been managed by them for years — and our suspicions were seldom aroused. Is it any wonder that the red conspirators think we are stupid?

We should recall, too, that our ministers and priests who went to Belgium after the war to study the alleged war crimes first hand were chagrined to find that THERE WERE NO ARMLESS BELGIAN BOYS!!! The alleged atrocities had been managed, but nobody bothered to tell the mothers and fathers, whose sons had died fighting in the red-inspired, senseless war, that the white race had been treacherously deceived—on both sides. We had been suckers as usual, swallowing the dangled bait of communism without ever suspecting that a vicious red hook was concealed inside. The reds have managed all of our wars as far back as our own civil war and the French Revolution—and perhaps further.

After the second World War, I served as Administrative Officer for the Education and Cultural Relations Division of the De-Nazification Program of Germany. Our offices were located in the old Palace of Justice Building in Nuremberg, where the so-called "War Crimes trials" were in progress; and I was properly horrified by daily atrocity stories emanating from the court rooms near my office.

Assistant Secretary of Defense Arthur Sylvester's remark that the government can lie to save itself, has never been repudiated by this Administration.

After talking with hundreds of well-informed people from Scandinavia, France, Austria, Hungary and other European nations, I began to suspect that the atrocity stories of World War II were also managed news. The real criminals of World War II were not being tried; some seemed to be serving as judges, juries, and witnesses against the defeated and defenseless Germans.

While on leave, I visited the infamous prison camp at Dachau, near Munich, still not fully realizing that I had been brainwashed about the so-called horror camp. At first, I saw no reason to suspect a hoax, but upon closer examination of this tourist trap, I was forced to the conclusion that I and millions of other unsuspecting Americans had been victims of "managed news."

Inside the gas chamber, a careful observer may see one of the neatest tricks ever conceived in the mind of a "managed-atrocity-expert." In fact, the trick was too neat, for the chamber of alleged horrors was sparkling brand new—without a blotch, a spot, a mark, or a smear to testify that anyone had ever died there.

WAS THE GAS CHAMBER AT DACHAU BUILT AFTER THE WAR?—like the setting for a Hollywood monster picture? Was its post-war construction designed to convince gullible Americans that the managed atrocities had actually occurred? Many millions of Europeans think so. Nothing as crude as the propaganda lies of the first World War was permitted. The Belgian boy

"atrocities" were for the ultra-naïve. Americans have become somewhat more sophisticated, and the reds had to become more polished propagandists. There had to be "proof" that the propaganda lies were true. Americans who had witnessed the scene of the alleged horror must return home to verify the managed-atrocity-lies.

It seems highly unlikely that tens of thousands of people could be gassed to death in a small chamber without leaving a spot. The victims would have been clawing at the walls. There would have been blood stains. But there was nothing—nothing but the technique of the BIG LIE, told often enough and long enough and loud enough so that millions believed it. It is now my firm conviction that NOBODY EVER DIED IN THE "GERMAN" GAS CHAMBERS. Many Europeans and Americans believe that the chambers were secretly built AFTER THE WAR by COMMUNISTS IN AMERICAN UNIFORMS. There was not the slightest evidence—except "managed evidence"—that any of the six million communists and their stooges were doing anything except screaming their usual chant of "police brutality." The atrocity stories are the Belgian boys of World War I and the police brutality cries of the current scene in our race riots. The reds have cried "Wolf!" too many times for any except the most simple minded to fall for the story again. Let us be adult enough, and mature enough, to toss all of the police brutality stories and concentration camp horror stories and Belgian boy stories into the political garbage heap where they belong. Let us never be fooled again. The reds are expert demonologists and monsterologists, quite capable of putting horns and a long tail on Little Orphan Annie—and a big pitchfork in her hands.

The red trick works like this: A commie hurls a brick in a "managed street brawl," and a policeman's skull is fractured. Then the red reptile screams "atrocity" or "police brutality." The "liberal" press grabs the story, and the victim of the outrageous conspiracy then finds to his dismay that he has become the villain instead of the victim. This was the case in Munich and Rochester, in Spain and Jersey City, and in Birmingham. These pages of the history book are not isolated chapters. The outrageous crimes committed in Madrid and Mississippi, in Hanover and Harlem are but different phases of the same diabolical red conspiracy. Still, each year, a new group of White Christians in Germany must be sacrificed to the red God of "managed atrocities" in order to perpetuate the myth of police brutality in the nation. The arthritic bones of a few aging Germans must be beaten anew each year. And every White Christian German must be hounded, harassed, and humiliated for his "crime" of resisting a communist take-over of his country.

We Americans have committed a savage crime of blundering stupidity against our white brothers in Germany. Now we must suffer for the war against communism that we would not permit the Germans and Italians to win. Perhaps we could atone for our
